THINGS THAT GO

Books about Cars, Trucks, Buses and Trains recommended by the Children's Librarians at The Ferguson Library.

I've Been Working on the Railroad
Illustrated by Robbie F. Woodson
A popular folk song is illustrated for children.

The Little Engine That Could
by Watty Piper
The classic tale of "I think I can. I think I can" continues to engage small children.

Train Song
by Harriet Ziefert
This rhyming text shares a young boy's fascination with trains.

Trains
by Anne Rockwell
A child's first look at trains. $6.95. JR

Window Music
by Anastasia Suen
A little girl enjoys a colorful train trip to her grandparents.

The Ferguson Library
Stamford's Public Library
One Public Library Plaza
Stamford
203.964.1000
www.fergusonlibrary.org
Young children love watching vehicles that move, and they love reading about them too. The Children's Librarians at THE FERGUSON LIBRARY enthusiastically recommend the following books for your young car, truck, train and bus lovers. And don't forget, your librarians can help you with additional suggestions of books to read by these and other authors.

All books are located in the picture book area unless otherwise noted.

CARS

Are We There Yet, Daddy? by Virginia Walters
On a hundred mile trip, a map is a great way to pass the time.

Beep! Beep! by Anne Miranda
A little boy pretends to be different vehicles on imaginary journeys.

Beep Beep, Vroom Vroom! by Stuart Murphy
Molly and Kevin learn about pattern sequences while playing with toy cars.

Car Wash by Sandra Steen and Susan Steen
Washing the car can be a wild ride for imaginative children.

The Cut-Ups Crack Up by James Marshall
Two boys get in trouble when they drive the principal's car.

Five Little Monkeys Wash the Car by Eileen Christelow
Misbehaving monkeys have adventures with an old car.

Good Driving, Amelia Bedelia by Herman Parish
Hilarity results when Mr. Rogers takes Amelia out to practice driving.

In the Driver's Seat by Max Haynes
A lesson in driving has some surprise results.

Mama and Me and the Model T by Faye Gibbons
Who are better drivers - women or men?

Mr. Gumpy's Motor Car by John Burningham
Everyone wants to go on a trip, but no one wants to help when a problem occurs.

My Car by Byron Barton
A young boy takes very good care of his beloved car.

Rattlebang Picnic by Margaret Mahy
Ten members of a family have an adventuresome outing.

The Smash-Up, Crash-Up Derby by Tres Seymour
The sights and sounds of a demolition derby are told in verse.

TRUCKS

Big Book of Rescue Vehicles by Caroline Bingham
Large photographs and descriptions of emergency vehicles.

Big Machines at Work (series) by Joan Eick
A series of books about bulldozers, diggers, forklifts and more.

The Crazy Crawler Crane and Other Very Short Truck Stories by Mittle Cuetara
This rhyming text shows how different trucks are used.

Ed and Me by David McPhail
A small girl and her father name their truck and build a home for it.

Fill It Up: All About Service Stations by Gail Gibbons
Everything you want to know about gas stations.

Frank and Ernest on the Road by Alexandra Day
Animals learn how truck drivers communicate.

Tractor-Trailer Truckers: A Powerful Truck Book by Joyce Slayton Mitchell
Everything you need to know about getting a vehicle ready for the road.

Trash Trucks by Daniel Kirk
A city truck roams the streets gobbling up garbage.

Truck by Donald Crews
A simple story of loading and unloading a truck.

Truck Talk: Rhymes on Wheels by Bobbi Katz
Rhymes and photographs of garbage trucks, tow trucks, fire trucks and more.

Truck Trouble by Angela Royston
The life of a truck driver sometimes has its problems.

Trucks, Trucks, Trucks by Peter Sis
Melt enters an imaginary world when he operates his toy trucks.

Vroom! Vroom! Making 'Dozers, 'Copters, Trucks and More by Judy Press
A "how to make them" craft book of things that go.

Wheels Around by Shelley Rotner
How do wheels help us carry, fix, deliver, build and load?

BUSES

Arthur Lost and Found by Marc Brown
Arthur and Buster fall asleep on their first bus trip and must make friends with the bus driver.

Maisy Drives the Bus by Lucy Cousins
Maisy counts her passengers as she drives around the town.

Minnie and Moo Go to Paris by Densy Cazet
A busload of animals travels the world.

Riding the School Bus with Mrs. Kramer by Alice K. Flanagan
Everyone depends on the bus driver.

The Seals on the Bus by Lenny Hort
All the animals make their noises in this take-off on a familiar song.