Vampire Kisses by Ellen Schreiber
Raven, who secretly covets a vampire kiss, is dying to uncover the truth about a new family that never ventures out during the day.

Cirque du Freak Series by Darren Shan
Darren Shan is an ordinary schoolboy, until he gets tickets to the Cirque Du Freak, where he recognizes that one of the performers is in fact a vampire!

Dracula by Bram Stoker
A lunatic asylum, a bleak Transylvanian castle and an ancient cemetery are the dark settings for the story of notorious vampire Count Dracula.

Companions of the Night by Vivian Vande Velde
When sixteen-year-old Kerry Nowicki helps a young man escape from a group of men who claim he is a vampire, she is faced with some bizarre and dangerous choices.

Peeps by Scott Westerfield
Nineteen-year-old Cal, a parasite-positive, or peep (he prefers not to use the v-word), learns that something worse than peeps threatens New York City.
Vampires have long fascinated writers and readers, so it is no surprise that there are so many books about these supernatural creatures who come alive only to feed on human blood. Whether you like your vampires terrifying like Bram Stoker’s Dracula or dreamy like Twilight’s Edward Cullen, there is a book here for you. If you are not wearing too much garlic or holding up any mirrors, it would be our pleasure to show you where these books rest during the day!
