STAMFORD, Conn., Nov. 7.—Charles H. Leeds, the first Mayor of Stamford, died in Atlantic City, N. J., tonight. Mr. Leeds was elected Warden of the old Borough of Stamford in 1893, and when the city was incorporated in 1894, he became Mayor. He served one term. Mr. Leeds was a lineal descendant of early New England families. He was a Yale graduate, and after leaving college was in the manufacturing business.

He was Secretary and Treasurer of the Stamford Yacht Club for years, Governor of the Suburban Club, Director of the Stamford Hospital, Treasurer of the Presbyterian Church, and manager of the Children's Home here. He is survived by four sons and two daughters. Mr. Leeds was 80 years old.
