TEEN VOLUNTEER

SUMMER LEARNING CLUB THEME:

Find Your VOICE

VOLUNTEER FAQS

Who can be a Ferguson Library Summer Teen Volunteer?

Anyone between the ages of 12 and 18 who can volunteer at least five hours during the summer. (You must turn 12 by June 10.)

What does a volunteer do?

- Helps run the children's and teen's summer learning clubs.

- Assists with special projects and activities

When do volunteers work?

From June 10 to the end of the Summer Learning Club. You can set your own schedule to work any hour that the library is open.

Volunteers work no more than a couple of hours a day or a few hours a week so there is lots of time for summer activities.

Why volunteer?

- To help others
- To learn job skills
- To earn community service hours
- To meet other teens and have fun!

Where do volunteers work?

At the Main Library, DiMattia Building

How do I become a Summer Teen Volunteer?

- Fill out this application. Additional applications can be printed from the library's website.

- Have a parent or guardian sign it, and take it to the Main Library, DiMattia Building at least one day before your training session.

How do I learn what to do?

All volunteers, including those who volunteered last year, must attend a training session. Choose your training session on the back of the application. Training will include how to use the online Summer Learning Club software.
