Week of the Young Child April 16 to 20

Help us celebrate your youngest learners. As part of the Week of the Young Child, The Ferguson is holding a special family storytime Thursday, April 19 at 7 p.m. (See our calendar for details.) The Week of the Young Child is an annual celebration hosted by the National Association for the Education of Young Children celebrating early learning, young children, their teachers and families.

Celebrate National Poetry Month with Poem in Your Pocket Day. On April 26, select a poem, carry it with you, and share it with others at schools, bookstores, libraries, parks, workplaces, street corners, and social media using the hashtag #fergusonlibrarypocketpoem. Need some suggestions? Stop by the Library.

National Bookmobile Day
National Bookmobile Day is April 11, but we’re celebrating all month with a special quilt making project. Tell us how you feel about your Bookmobile! We’ll have squares of fabric on board for you to draw on, write or color a message. Then we’ll put them all together in a beautiful quilt. Be sure to visit the Bookmobile and contribute to this community project. You can find the schedule on our website, or at any library location.

DigitalLearn.Org
Are you new to computers, and want to learn how to set up email or navigate a website? Maybe you’d like to learn how to create a household budget or buy a plane ticket online. You can find short tutorials on these and many other digital topics at DigitalLearn.Org, a project of the Public Library Association, or on our website under Research, A to Z Databases. Most lessons take less than 20 minutes.

From the President’s Desk
I’d like to invite you to our annual fundraiser, A Novel Affair, on Wednesday, April 18. It is the one night of the year that we close our doors early, only to open them a couple of hours later for a wonderful evening of food, drink, music and good friends. This year, we are honoring Sandy Goldstein, who has worked so hard to make Stamford’s downtown a thriving place.
Why is our fundraiser so important? It helps us raise funds so we can provide services to the entire community. The Ferguson Library Foundation and The Friends of The Ferguson Library help underwrite our collections and programming, but we still need to raise 15% of our operating budget each year to provide the library services you depend on.
I hope you’ll join us April 18 to support your public library.
– Alice Knapp, President

A Novel Affair April 18
Great restaurants, craft beer and wine tastings! Don’t miss A Novel Affair on April 18, when we transform The Ferguson into a festive venue for an evening of food and fun to benefit the Library. (The Library will close at 4 p.m. that day.)
We’re delighted to honor Sandy Goldstein, President of Stamford Downtown, with The Ferguson Award. Reservations are available at fergusonlibrary.org or by phone at 203 351-8205.
Many thanks to our major sponsors to date:
Cervantes: Friends of The Ferguson Library; SL Green
Hemingsway: Stephen Corm an; OdysseyRe; Pitney Bow es, Purdue Pharma
Dickinson: Althia Group; Kathryn Emmett & David S. Golub; First County Bank; Thomson Reuters
Fitzgerald: BL Harbor Point; Ellen Brom ley & Thomas G üick; Cacace Tuschi & Santagata; Cornell University Veterinary Specialists; Cross Insurance; Susan R. Cullman & John Kirby; Mort & Eleanor Lowenthal; Larry Morse & Pamela McKoin; W oley, Rosen, Kweiski & Kuriansky

Civic Lab
What do you want for the city of Stamford? Stop by our Civic Lab at the Main Library and let us know. We’re collecting suggestions about how to make Stamford a better place to live and will share them with city government when the project is finished. The word cloud shows what is on people’s minds.

Fan Fest April 10 to 14
We had so much fun last year, we’re making Fan Fest four whole days this year! Come in costume and have fun with Superhero Virtual Reality, Jedi Yoga Storytime, a Disney Sing Along, and more! There’s something for kids of all ages. See our online calendar for details.

Friends Author Series: Lisa Genova Rescheduled for May 24
Join us for an evening of food, wine and conversation Thursday, May 24 with bestselling author Lisa Genova, the author of Still Alice and Every Note Played, a powerful story about ALS, that explores regret, forgiveness, setting up, and redemption. Tickets are $15 to benefit the Library. Register at fergusonlibrary.org.

Harry Bennett Flooring Project
Thanks to everyone who has donated to our Go Me fundraising campaign to raise money for new flooring for the Harry Bennett Branch. So far, we have raised $7,500 to replace the worn carpet with durable flooring that will also help reduce noise. These donations, in addition to other generous contributions, have put us on our way to succeeding with the project! Please spread the word about the campaign. A lot of small donations can make a difference.
