SUMMER READING LIST 2019
PRE-K TO 8TH GRADE

Presented by the Stamford Public Schools and The Ferguson Library
Summer 2019

Summer is a time to relax and have fun, and reading can be a wonderful part of your vacation experience. In the summer, explore different books – ones you can’t get to during the busy school year. You may discover a new genre or author, and you may be surprised to find that there are books that mirror your experience, make you laugh, teach you interesting things, or help you see your world in a new way.

Summer Reading doesn’t have to be a solitary activity – unless you want it to be. You can read with friends or listen to an audiobook while on a family vacation. Discussing what you read with family and friends will help you grow as a reader and it can also add to your enjoyment.

Each year, the Stamford Public Schools and The Ferguson Library update this booklist to guide you in selecting your summer reading. Public librarians, school library media specialists, and reading teachers have all worked together to select high quality titles that we think you will enjoy. You’ll find many choices within each grade level, and we have noted which titles are available in audio format for listening individually or as a family. You will also find a list of award-winning and notable films for kids, teens, and families, so you can use this list as a guide for summer viewing. We have also included Lexile levels (when available) for books in grades 3 to 8.

At the beginning of the list you will find The American Library Association’s award-winning books for 2019, including the Newbery and Caldecott titles. Connecticut has a kid-selected Nutmeg Book Award, and this list includes the 2020 Nutmeg nominees. You can challenge yourself over the summer and beyond by reading the nominees in your age category. If you are entering grades 2 – 4, read The Nutmeg Elementary Award Nominees. If you are entering grades 4 – 6, read The Nutmeg Intermediate Award Nominees, and grades 7 – 8 read from The Nutmeg Middle School Nominees. If you read all of the nominees in your category and vote for your favorite book in the spring of 2020, you can help select the winner of Connecticut’s children’s choice book award! All of the titles listed are available at The Ferguson Library. Feel free to ask the Youth Services librarians for personalized reading suggestions; they are happy to help find the perfect book for you.

Try to read at least 20 minutes every day during the summer and be sure and sign up for The Ferguson Library’s Children’s and Teen’s summer reading clubs. This year’s theme is A Universe of Stories. As club members, you can earn prizes and the opportunity to attend special events. And, to make it even easier to participate, you can join the clubs and report minutes online at www.fergusonlibrary.org. So have a great summer and HAPPY READING!
